

Jaap Bongers

Jaap Bongers is born and raised in the east part of the Netherlands, and became a histology technician in 2003. During the first seven years of his career he developed his interest in post mortems and became an APT (Anatomical Pathology Technician) at the pathology laboratory in 's-Hertogenbosch.

He then moved to the Ministry of Security and Justice at the Netherlands Forensic Institute, where he worked for three years and participated in forensic post mortems and the identification of victims. In 2011 he became a mortuary manager at the Department of Pathology at the Erasmus University Medical Center in Rotterdam.

Currently he is also a board member of the Dutch AAPT, N.V.O.A. "Vesalius", chair of the Education and training Committee, and teaching several classes for the Dutch embalming course.
